Upstairs At The Western Theatre	Upstairs At The Western theatre is situated on the first floor of The Western pub, a Victorian building, which has step free access to the ground floor, garden and toilets. The theatre is accessed by means of internal stairs, and the emergency exit is via an enclosed staircase to the pub garden. Both staircases are of good step and tread, and have handrails but there is no lift in the pub. We want as many people as possible to enjoy the intimate and immersive atmosphere of our theatre and as such we take all possible steps to accommodate people with restricted mobility or vision loss. This includes providing people (and carers) with early and unhurried access to the auditorium before shows start. Choice of seating. Helping people up and down the stairs. Arranging for refreshments to be fetched from the bar. Where required, a personal evacuation plan is agreed with people in advance and a member of the theatre staff is assigned to be with and take responsibility for the person if the evacuation
